Distinctive Courses in this Major

ENGL 3010 Literary Theory and Criticism 3hrs

A course designed to give English majors guided opportunities to acquire effective methods of writing literary analyses informed by current literary criticism and cultural theories. Required for English majors. ENGL 3010 is a pre- or co-requisite for all upper division courses in literature.

ENGL 3321 Intro to Language 3hrs

A general survey of linguistics, with emphasis on sociolinguistics, the historical development of the English language, and the structure of contemporary English.

ENGL 4700 Senior Seminar 3hrs

A capstone course in which students will be guided to synthesize previous coursework through intensive study of literary movements, genres, and authors. Methods include small group discussion, formal and informal oral presentations, and conferences with the professor. Each student will prepare a major paper demonstrating skill in research, writing, and critical thinking.
